

HIGHER LOGIC STRATEGIC SERVICES COMMUNITY COACHING

Leverage the experiences of our Community Consultants who have successfully managed over 100 Higher Logic communities.

Best for organizations with intermediate or advanced levels of experience with a community that has already launched.

Like a personal trainer, our Higher Logic Coach will work with you to set goals for your community, prioritize the engagement tactics to try every month, and provide you with the tools and templates to execute so you don't have to reinvent the wheel.

As a result of Coaching, you will be able to increase engagement while decreasing the time, energy, and effort that you currently dedicate to managing the community. .

PLAN → our Community Coach will review the health of your existing community and develop a community roadmap outlining the engagement tactics to apply to achieve your organization's goals.

GROW → Connect with your Higher Logic Community Coach every month to review the health of your community, receive feedback on engagement tactics before you apply them in the community, monitor progress towards the milestones on your community roadmap, and leave equipped with Community Engagement Toolkits to expertly manage your community between our virtual Coaching Sessions.
